

The University YMCA is a gathering place for all nationalities, religions, and races. It is a place to study, meet friends, eat lunch, and enjoy a warm, friendly atmosphere.

The YMCA also offers lecture series and student programs involving art and culture, environmental concerns, social justice, and service learning.

Living at the University YMCA surrounds one with many opportunities. The third floor residents often form teams to compete in University Intramural Sports programs. After all, the YMCA has the biggest "backyard" in town, the Quad.

There is no meal plan, but you can purchase a U of I meal plan to use on campus and lunch can be purchased at the Y Thai Eatery located on the first floor of the building.

If you are interested in touring our facility and learning more about the YMCA, please feel free to call or email:

Just one block from the University of Illinois's Quad, living at the University YMCA in Champaign, is both convenient and affordable. Students reside on the third floor of the building. This historic building was constructed in 1938 across the street from the Lincoln Hall on Wright St. The University Library is just one block south of the YMCA; three blocks to the north lies campus town & engineering campus.

The facility can house up to 12 students; the perfect amount to capture a family-like atmosphere. The Third Floor Residence consists of two double rooms and two triple rooms. Each room has a high-speed internet connection and there is a shared, fully-equipped kitchen. For recreation and relaxation, residents can take advantage of the large lounge.

Limited parking is available for an additional monthly charge. Laundry facilities are available in the building. The YMCA meets all University Certified Housing standards.

Included in the monthly rate:

- * Free local calls
- * Air conditioning
- * Wi-fi & computer in lounge
- * All utilities

Each room is furnished with:

- * A bed
- * Dresser
- * Desk
- * Lamp
- * Bookshelves

Residents must be male students attending the University of Illinois. All students need two written letters of recommendation as part of the housing application. Room contracts are available for the academic year and/or the summer. The housing application can be found on our website:
